Attunements – No Notes – Power Spots

Attunements – No Notes

The attunements in this category can be used as Reiki. Example to use the Machu Picchu energy as hands on healing, just think "Machu Pichu" instead of Reiki to start the energy flow.

You can also use them to create energy tools, like those described in the Tachyon manual. Here you would just replace the word "Tachyon" with the appropriate energy, example "Machu Picchu".

Additionally it is possible to pass these attunements on, as you would pass on Kundalini Reiki, Tachyon or any of the other attunements. (I recommend having completed at least Tachyon 2008 and Kundalini Reiki 1 before taking one of these attunements to get the full benefit, but it's though not a requirement.) Ole Gabrielsen Power Spot Attunements are attunements to the energies of specific power spots. These energies may be used as you would use Reiki for healing, or they may be used to create tools that function as "mini power spots".

A "mini power spot" tool functions as an "All Round Tachyon Antenna" enabling us at any time to benefit from the power spot's energies.

Sample Basic Use

You may run the energies as you would Reiki, or you can make Machu Picchu tools as you would create Tachyon tools (please view Tachyon course notes).

Example of creation:

Hold the object in your hand or place it on the table. As an example, you can use a stone or piece of jewelry.

Say the following mentally:

“This stone will now become a Machu Picchu energy antenna.”

Wait a few seconds and the antenna is ready.

Receiving the attunement

Sit or lie down in a comfortable position.

Mentally say once: “I will now receive the Machu Picchu attunement from-----.”

This will start the attunement and it will last for 12 – 15 minutes.

The attunement procedure is done, but I highly recommended that you keep your position for another 10 – 25 minutes (or more if you like). This will give the increased flow of the energy a chance to more rapidly become distributed and absorbed into your energy system.

Enjoy!

Passing the Machu Picchu Attunement

Here is a very simple way to send any attunement.

Relax and recharge.

When you have rested for 10 – 15 minutes, rise and be fully awake.

State mentally or loud once:

“Machu Picchu attunement queued for (name)”

Blessings!
